

Moving to Discover our Potential

2018-2019

YEAR IN REVIEW

We worked hard last year to achieve the initial goals of our 5-year plan. Here is how we did it.

10.2%
undergraduate enrolment
growth rate

88.5%
student retention rate
within Kinesiology

Opening of the

Ron & Jane
Graham
Sport Science
& Health Centre

KIN Life
learn work play

4 high impact
events for KIN students

- Indigenous Games
- Career Readiness
- Find Your Future
- Ace the Interview

629

undergraduate students

Commitment to Reconciliation

10 reserved academic seats for Indigenous students

51 self-declared Indigenous students in the undergraduate program (8.5% increase)

15 FIT4U participants in partnership with the Aboriginal Student Centre

244 Indigenous participants in our Youth Leadership Through Sport partnership with the Saskatoon Tribal Council

NEW Indigenous athlete display in the PAC featuring Saskatchewan Hall of Fame inductees

2 courses focused on Indigenous content developed and taught by Indigenous faculty

launched

a new cohesive brand for student and community
recreation programming.

45

graduate
students

4

new research themes

- Human performance
- Healthy aging and management of chronic conditions
- Child and youth health
and development
- Indigenous wellness

4

successful
post-doc
funding grant
applications
($314K total funding)

300K

visitors to the Physical Activity Complex

3,873

alumni

Students 1st!

Constructed a new Student Support
Hub for student success

$300K

in scholarships and bursaries
awarded to students

KINNECTION

college magazine
relaunched

